Cheryl Regehr

Constituency: Presidential Appointee

Appointed: September 2, 2013

Degrees and Honours:

BA (Psychology), Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, 1978

MSW, University of Toronto, 1980

PhD, Doctor of Philosophy, University of Toronto, Faculty of Social Work, 1995

Notes:

Professor Regehr earned her BA in Psychology from Wilfrid Laurier University in 1978 and went on to complete her Master of Social Work at the University of Toronto in 1980. She then embarked on a career as a social worker, serving in multiple institutions with increasing responsibility as a practitioner and program leader, and establishing special expertise in the area of recovery from psychological trauma.

After some years, Professor Regehr returned to the University and received her Doctor of Philosophy in 1995. She joined the Faculty of Social Work at Wilfrid Laurier University that year. In 1999, Professor Regehr moved back to the University of Toronto, and was appointed full Professor by 2004, with cross-appointments in the Faculty of Law and the Institute of Medical Sciences.

In the Factor-Inwentash Faculty of Social Work Professor Regehr held the Sandra Rotman Chair in Social Work from 2003 to 2009, and filled multiple leadership roles before becoming Dean in January 2006. These included directing the Centre for Applied Social Research, the Research Institute for Evidenced Based Social Work, the Centre for Excellence for Child Welfare, and the JD/MSW Program.

To this day Professor Regehr has sustained an active program of award-winning research. She continues to publish actively, and serves on peer-review committees and editorial boards in her areas of expertise. She has been supported as a principal investigator or co-investigator on grants by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada more or less continuously for over 15 years. The co-author of four books and over 100 journal articles, she was also a three-time winner of the Faculty of Social Work's Teacher of the Year award.

As Vice-Provost, Academic Programs Professor Regehr has been a key member of the Provost's leadership team, working with varied constituencies across all three campuses and serving on the board of the University Health Network. Professor Regehr has done transformative work in the challenging area of quality assurance and standards, enhancing and streamlining the approaches taken by the province, the Council of Ontario Universities, and our own institution. She has taken a leading role in the University's growing move to embrace novel methodologies for on-line learning. More generally, the Provost-designate has been active as an assessor to the Academic Board and its Committee on Academic Policy and Programs, participated in collective bargaining, facilitated cross-faculty interdisciplinary initiatives, and been active in formulating University-wide guidelines on a range of matters. Even as she has built bridges internally, Cheryl Regehr has shown an unusual ability to navigate the external landscape. She has won friends for the University and positively influenced decision-makers as both earlier as a Dean and more recently as a Vice-Provost.

Mark Henry Rowswell

Constituency: LGIC Government Appointee

Appointed: April 30, 2014

Degrees and Honours:

B.A., Specialist in Chinese Studies , University of Toronto, 1988

Chinese Language Studies, Peking University, Beijing, 1991

Member of the Order of Canada, 2006

Honorary Doctorate, Thompson Rivers University, Kamloops, BC, 2009

Notes:

Mark Rowswell, whose stage name is Dashan, has been called the most famous foreigner in China. He has become a regular fixture on Chinese television and a cultural icon across the nation.

Born and raised in Canada, Mr. Rowswell began studying Chinese in the mid 1980s, first at the University of Toronto and later at Beijing University. While in Beijing, Mr. Rowswell became interested in traditional Chinese performing arts, particularly xiangsheng, a popular form of comic dialogue. A chance opportunity to perform on television soon followed. What Mr. Rowswell did not realize was that this program would be broadcast nationally to an audience of 800 million television viewers, and that Dashan would become a household name literally overnight.

Almost 20 years later, Dashan is still a popular icon in China. Having diversified and developed into a multi-faceted performer, language educator, and television host, Mr. Rowswell is already considered a cultural ambassador between China and the West, having found a common ground between the two cultures. To many Chinese, Mr. Rowswell is an international role model and a prominent symbol of “East meets West.”

Today, Mr. Rowswell is involved in a wide variety of activities, from hosting television programs and live events, to dramatic acting, public speaking, publishing, education, and celebrity endorsement. When he is not working in China, Mr. Rowswell lives relatively anonymously with his wife and two children in a rural setting north of Toronto.

In December 2006, Mr. Rowswell became a Member of the Order of Canada for his work in uniting the Canadian and Chinese peoples through laughter, understanding and goodwill. He has represented Canada in a number of capacities including serving as Team Attaché for the Canadian Olympic Committee at the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing, and being appointed as Canada's Commissioner General for Expo 2010 in Shanghai.

Hargurdeep (Deep) Saini

Constituency: Presidential Appointee

Appointed: July 1, 2013

Degrees and Honours:

B.Sc. (Hon), Botany, Punjab Agricultural University, 1975

M.Sc. (Hon), Botany, Punjab Agricultural University, 1977

Doctorate, Plant Physiology, University of Adelaide, Australia, 1982

Notes:

Professor Hargurdeep (Deep) Saini is an experienced administrator, researcher and teacher. He is currently the Principal of University of Toronto Mississauga and Vice-President of the University of Toronto, where he is also a Professor of Biology. Prior to starting his present position on July 1, 2010, he was the Dean of the Faculty of Environment at the University of Waterloo (Jan 2006 - June 2010). He was previously Professor of Biology at the Université de Montréal (Dec 1987 - Dec 2005), where he also served as the Director General of the Institut de recherche en biologie végétale (June 1996 - Dec 2001). He began his Canadian academic career at the University of Alberta in 1982.

Under Professor Saini's leadership, the Faculty of Environment at Waterloo experienced near doubling of the enrolment; introduction of a number of innovative new degree programs; addition of two unique academic units - the School of Environment, Enterprise & Development and the Centre for Knowledge Integration; and construction of two new buildings to accommodate the Faculty's expansion.

In addition to his extensive experience in university administration and governance, Professor Saini has played various broader leadership roles in Canada, including President of the Canadian Society of Plant Physiologists (2003-05), President of the Federation of Canadian Plant Science Societies (2005-07), member of Export Development Canada's Advisory Council on Corporate and Social Responsibility, member of the Ontario Premier's "2009 Clean Tech Mission to India", Associate Editor of the Canadian Journal of Botany (2003-2010), and Consulting Editor of the Journal of Crop Production (1997-2000). In 2010, the Canadian Society of Plant Physiologists honored him with the Gleb Krotkov Award for distinguished services to the society and plant biology.

Degrees and Honours:
B.Com., University of Toronto, 1977
CPA, CA, Ontario Institute of Chartered Accountants, 1979
FCPA, FCA, Ontario Institute of Chartered Accountants, 2003

Notes:

Bruce Winter is retired, having spent 35 years in public accounting. He was an audit partner with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP where his client base was focussed on larger, multinational clients. His experience included work with private and public companies in various industries, within Canada and globally.

Bruce is a member of the Board of Directors of St. Joseph's Health Centre, Toronto. He became a member of the International Auditing and Assurance Board (IAASB) in January 2012. The IAASB is an independent standard-setting body that serves the public interest by setting high-quality international standards for auditing, assurance, and other related standards, and by facilitating the convergence of international and national auditing and assurance standards. He was a member of the Canadian Auditing and Assurance Board beginning in 2007, serving as Vice-Chair from 2008-2010 and then Chair from 2010-2012.

Bruce has taken an active role in the volunteer community, having held senior roles with Shaw Festival Theatre and the Canadian Cancer Society (Ontario Division). He has been a frequent presenter at the Institute of Corporate Directors, Directors Education Program on current topics for Audit Committees.

Bruce holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Toronto, becoming a Chartered Accountant in 1979 and was awarded an FCA in Ontario in 2003.

Lawrence Zhang

Constituency: Full-time Undergraduate Student
Elected: July 1, 2015
Degrees and Honours: in progress

Notes:

Lawrence hails from sunny Vancouver, but grew up abroad in the even sunnier south of China. He is currently an undergraduate student of International Relations and Political Science, with strong interests in theatre, volunteer work, and global affairs. Most importantly, Lawrence is greatly looking forward to working with all members of the Governing Council and the school at large, in continuing to make this university an institution to be proud of.
