

Voting Instructions for the 2015 UTM Campus Council Election Teaching Staff

For the purposes of the UTM Campus Council election, “Teaching Staff” means the employees of the University, University College, the Constituent Colleges and the arts and science faculties of the Federated Universities who hold the academic rank of professor, associate professor, assistant professor, full-time lecturer or part-time lecturer, unless such part-time lecturer is registered as a Student, or who hold any other rank created by the Governing Council and designated by it as an academic rank for the purposes of clause 1 (1) (m) of the Act. For the purpose of Governing Council elections, lecturer includes the ranks of Lecturer, Senior Lecturer, Tutor, and Senior Tutor. Lecturer also includes associates in the Faculty of Dentistry. Assistant Professor (conditional), Sessional Lecturer I, Sessional Lecturer II, Sessional Lecturer III, Athletics Instructor, and Senior Athletics Instructor have been designated by the Governing Council as academic ranks for the purposes of clause 1 (1) (m) of the Act.

For the purposes of this election UTM Teaching Staff are defined as those holding their major appointment at the University of Toronto Mississauga.

Please read the instructions and the candidates’ statements provided below before voting.

Candidates' Statements

Lee Bailey

I have been a member of this college for more than 25 years. I teach and hold office hours at UTM five days a week. This schedule will permit me to serve faithfully as a member of this committee. In addition to attending Erindale College Council I have served a Chair of RPPC for 2 terms, as a member of Campus Affairs for 1 term and a member of Campus Council for 1 term. I have never missed a meeting. I ask for your support. Yours truly, Lee Bailey. Department of Economics.

Bernard Katz

I joined Erindale College, as our campus was then called, in 1976 and have taught in the Department of Philosophy since then. I served as Erindale Philosophy Discipline Representative (1979-1981), Associate Chair and Graduate Coordinator for Department of Philosophy (1995-98), Associate Dean, Humanities, of the School of Graduate Studies (1999-2004), and Acting Vice-Dean, Graduate of UTM (2012-13). I have also served on numerous College, Department and University committees.

Angela Lange

Angela Lange is a Professor of Biology. She obtained her Ph.D. from York University, Toronto, Canada, prior to taking up an NSERC Post-doctoral Fellowship in the Department of Zoology, University of Toronto. Professor Lange has held a variety of important administrative positions, including Chair of the Department of Biology and Vice-Dean, Undergraduate, Teaching and Learning and has over the years at UTM been very involved in curricular development. She is currently Associate Chair, Research. Professor Lange served as the Chair of the Academic Affairs Committee for two terms and on the Executive Committee of UTM's previous governance model.

Joseph Leydon

As a faculty member, Joe is very involved in student mentorship through his role as faculty advisor to the undergraduate student society and works closely with the Career Centre to promote student professional development. Dr. Leydon is committed to experiential learning with particular interests in field work, supervision of student research projects, co-curricular activities and community outreach through his management of the Department's fourth year internship course. Joseph is currently in his second term as member of UTM Campus Council, as well as Chair of the UTM Campus Affairs Committee and member of the University Affairs Board.

Judith Poë

Judith Poë, Fellow of the Chemical Institute of Canada, is experienced in university governance having chaired the Erindale College Council, served on the Academic Board and currently chairs the UTM Academic Affairs Committee. She studied at Imperial College, London. A bioinorganic chemist, her current scholarship is in chemical education. An Editorial Board member of the Journal of Science Education and Technology and a President's Teaching Academy member, she has also received the OCUFA Teaching Award and a 3M Teaching Fellowship. Past-President of the Canadian Society for Chemistry, she is currently Chair of the Board of the Canadian Chemical Education Trust.

Holger Syme

I have taught at UTM since 2005, and have been the Chair of the Department of English and Drama since 2011. I have served on numerous university and campus committees, and am currently on the Jackman Humanities Institute's advisory board. As a scholar of contemporary theatre, I frequently explore the intersections of academic work and the creative professions and have a strong interest in public outreach. On Campus Council, I hope to serve as a voice for the Humanities, one of the largest and, thanks to our theatre and art gallery, most publicly visible areas of academic study at UTM. <http://www.syme.dispositio.net/>

Anthony Wensley

I have been a member of the UTM community since 1988. I have been consistently concerned to do all that I can to make UTM a welcoming and supportive environment for faculty, students and staff alike. I believe that over the years I have demonstrated my commitment to this goal and I would like to have the opportunity to continue to contribute.
