Mr. L.

Don Mills, Ontario

Dear Mr. L.

At its hearing on Tuesday, June 19, 1979, the Local Branch of the Trial Division of the University Tribunal considered the following charge against you:

that in the final faculty examination in PHY 110Y held on April 27, 1979, you were seen to pass a small piece of paper to the student sitting next to you. This is contrary to Section E.1(a)(i) and Sections G.1 and G.6(a)(i)(ii)(iii)(iv)(v), (b) and G.7 and G.8 of the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour (Revised and Approved).

I am writing to advise you formally of the decision of the Tribunal with respect to this charge. The jury found you to be guilty of the charge under Section G.6(a)(ii) and imposed the following sanctions under Section F of the Code of Behaviour:

Sanction F.1(d) - failure (i.e. zero) in PHY 110Y Sanction F.1(f) - suspension from the University for nine months dating from June, 1979.

In accordance with Section G.4, the jury ordered that these sanctions should be recorded on your academic record for two years.

The jury gave as their reason for these sanctions their opinion that cheating is the worst offence that a student can commit in the context of the University. They felt that any pressure you may have been under to assist a friend did not excuse your behaviour.
