Ms. K.

Mississauga, Ontario

Dear Ms. K.

At a hearing on April 21, 1982 the Tribunal considered the following charges against you:

1. that on Friday, January 15, 1982, you knowingly obtained unauthorized assistance on a term test in Mathematics 132Y, in that the term test submitted under your name for credit was written by someone other than yourself, contrary to Section E.1(a)(i) and Section G.6(a)(iv) and (v) of the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters;
2. that on Friday, January 15, 1982, on a term test in Mathematics 132Y you did knowingly represent as your own work what was in fact the work of another, in that the term test submitted under your name for credit was written by someone other than yourself, contrary to Section E.1(a)(ii) and Section G.6(a)(iv) and (v) of the University of Toronto Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters.

The Tribunal found you guilty of both charges and imposed the following sanctions:

- a mark of zero in MAT 132Y
- suspension from the University of Toronto from the end of the 1981/82 winter session until January, 1983.

The jury based the sanctions on the following reasons:

the jury rejected a suggestion made by counsel for Miss K. that, if suspension from the university were to be ordered, the period of suspension ought to apply to the 1981/82 academic session. It was the jury's position that Ms. K. should be permitted to complete the 1981/82 winter session but that she should then be suspended until January, 1983. The jury cited the student's age, cultural background, the state of her health at the time of the offence and the fact that she pleaded guilty as influencing its decision.

I am forwarding to you and the University Discipline Counsel information regarding rights of appeal. The deadline for filing an appeal is May 13th.

Sincerely,

PATRICK S. PHILLIPS
Secretary, Academic Tribunal
