Cheryl Regehr

Constituency: Presidential Appointee

Appointed: September 2, 2013

Degrees and Honours:

BA (Psychology), Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, 1978

MSW, University of Toronto, 1980

PhD, Doctor of Philosophy, University of Toronto, Faculty of Social Work, 1995

Notes:

Professor Regehr earned her BA in Psychology from Wilfrid Laurier University in 1978 and went on to complete her Master of Social Work at the University of Toronto in 1980. She then embarked on a career as a social worker, serving in multiple institutions with increasing responsibility as a practitioner and program leader, and establishing special expertise in the area of recovery from psychological trauma.

After some years, Professor Regehr returned to the University and received her Doctor of Philosophy in 1995. She joined the Faculty of Social Work at Wilfrid Laurier University that year. In 1999, Professor Regehr moved back to the University of Toronto, and was appointed full Professor by 2004, with cross-appointments in the Faculty of Law and the Institute of Medical Sciences.

In the Factor-Inwentash Faculty of Social Work Professor Regehr held the Sandra Rotman Chair in Social Work from 2003 to 2009, and filled multiple leadership roles before becoming Dean in January 2006. These included directing the Centre for Applied Social Research, the Research Institute for Evidenced Based Social Work, the Centre for Excellence for Child Welfare, and the JD/MSW Program.

To this day Professor Regehr has sustained an active program of award-winning research. She continues to publish actively, and serves on peer-review committees and editorial boards in her areas of expertise. She has been supported as a principal investigator or co-investigator on grants by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada more or less continuously for over 15 years. The co-author of four books and over 100 journal articles, she was also a three-time winner of the Faculty of Social Work's Teacher of the Year award.

As Vice-Provost, Academic Programs Professor Regehr has been a key member of the Provost's leadership team, working with varied constituencies across all three campuses and serving on the board of the University Health Network. Professor Regehr has done transformative work in the challenging area of quality assurance and standards, enhancing and streamlining the approaches taken by the province, the Council of Ontario Universities, and our own institution. She has taken a leading role in the University's growing move to embrace novel methodologies for on-line learning. More generally, the Provost-designate has been active as an assessor to the Academic Board and its Committee on Academic Policy and Programs, participated in collective bargaining, facilitated cross-faculty interdisciplinary initiatives, and been active in formulating University-wide guidelines on a range of matters. Even as she has built bridges internally, Cheryl Regehr has shown an unusual ability to navigate the external landscape. She has won friends for the University and positively influenced decision-makers as both earlier as a Dean and more recently as a Vice-Provost.

Mark Henry Rowswell

Constituency: LGIC Government Appointee

Appointed: April 30, 2014

Degrees and Honours:

B.A., Specialist in Chinese Studies , University of Toronto, 1988

Chinese Language Studies, Peking University, Beijing, 1991

Member of the Order of Canada, 2006

Honorary Doctorate, Thompson Rivers University, Kamloops, BC, 2009

Notes:

Mark Rowswell, whose stage name is Dashan, has been called the most famous foreigner in China. He has become a regular fixture on Chinese television and a cultural icon across the nation.

Born and raised in Canada, Mr. Rowswell began studying Chinese in the mid 1980s, first at the University of Toronto and later at Beijing University. While in Beijing, Mr. Rowswell became interested in traditional Chinese performing arts, particularly xiangsheng, a popular form of comic dialogue. A chance opportunity to perform on television soon followed. What Mr. Rowswell did not realize was that this program would be broadcast nationally to an audience of 800 million television viewers, and that Dashan would become a household name literally overnight.

Almost 20 years later, Dashan is still a popular icon in China. Having diversified and developed into a multi-faceted performer, language educator, and television host, Mr. Rowswell is already considered a cultural ambassador between China and the West, having found a common ground between the two cultures. To many Chinese, Mr. Rowswell is an international role model and a prominent symbol of “East meets West.”

Today, Mr. Rowswell is involved in a wide variety of activities, from hosting television programs and live events, to dramatic acting, public speaking, publishing, education, and celebrity endorsement. When he is not working in China, Mr. Rowswell lives relatively anonymously with his wife and two children in a rural setting north of Toronto.

In December 2006, Mr. Rowswell became a Member of the Order of Canada for his work in uniting the Canadian and Chinese peoples through laughter, understanding and goodwill. He has represented Canada in a number of capacities including serving as Team Attaché for the Canadian Olympic Committee at the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing, and being appointed as Canada's Commissioner General for Expo 2010 in Shanghai.

Igor Samardzic

Constituency: Part-time Undergraduate Student

Elected: October 25, 2016

Degrees and Honours:

BA, University of Toronto, 2013

Notes:

As an upper-year Urban Studies/Geography student, commuter, and student struggling to access evening classes, I understand the unique challenges facing part-time students. These challenges must be acknowledged and represented. As Governor, I will work with all stakeholders to remove financial barriers to education, improve quality, and prioritize the needs of part-time students. This includes accessibility as related to equity, disability, housing, transportation and childcare.

Nicholas Terpstra

Constituency: Teaching Staff
Elected: July 1, 2014

Degrees and Honours:
B.A., Hon., McMaster
M.A., McMaster University
PhD, University of Toronto, 1989

Notes:
Nicholas Terpstra is Professor and Chair of History at the University of Toronto, teaching Renaissance and early modern social history. In his research he has explored how civil society and social capital operate in Renaissance European society, and asks why this period of humanity and freedom also sees poverty, harsh discipline, and the emergence of the religious refugee as a mass phenomenon. In the past few years, Terpstra has focused on how Renaissance cities handled orphans, abandoned children, and poor in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries. A recent book, Cultures of Charity: Women, Politics, and the Reform of Poor Relief in Renaissance Italy (Harvard UP: 2013) won the Phyllis Goodhart Gordan Book Prize of the Renaissance Society of America and the Howard Marraro Prize of the American Historical Association. His most recent monograph, Religious Refugees in the Early Modern World: An Alternative History of the Reformation (Cambridge UP: 2015) explores exclusion and exile in the period of the Reformation. An ongoing project funded by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada is DECIMA (Digitally Encoded Census Information and Mapping Archive) an on-line digital tool that maps social, sensory, and built environments in Renaissance Florence. It can be accessed at <http://decima.chass.utoronto.ca> and is the subject of Mapping Space, Sense, and Movement in Florence: Historical GIS and the early modern city (Routledge: 2016). Terpstra is also Editor of Renaissance Quarterly, the leading academic journal for interdisciplinary studies in the Renaissance.
