Section III: Definitions

The definition of "Graduate Student" and "Student" below is an extract from the Election Guidelines 2017. It is your responsibility to ensure that you are eligible by consulting the Election Guidelines 2017, which provides more details for this definition and the eligibility criteria.

"Graduate Student" means a Student registered in the School of Graduate Studies.

"Student" means any person registered at the University for full-time or part-time study in a program that leads to a degree or post-secondary diploma or certificate of the University or in a program designated by the Governing Council as a program of post-secondary study at the University. The Transitional Year Program and the Millie Rotman Shime Academic Bridging Program have been designated by the Governing Council as programs of post-secondary study at the University, and, accordingly, a student in either of these programs is considered a "Student" in these Guidelines.
