Candidates' Statements

Sam Dumcum

After a decade of startup life, Sam joined the UofT Mississauga community as a mature student in 2013 and as a staff member in 2015. Be it creating a bar in the middle of a desert and building a multi-million dollar entertainment technology company or growing entrepreneurship on campus through student engagement events, Sam focuses on finding creative uses of resources to make life better. With lessons learned in academics and as part of different teams, Sam now trains and champions startups and students at UofT Mississauga and looks to bring these experiences to the Campus Affairs Committee. <http://www.samdumcum.com>

Tanya Kenesky

Tanya Kenesky has been a UTM employee since 2006. Her role as the UTM Library's Geographic Information Systems (GIS) & Data Support Specialist has allowed her to work closely with students, staff, and faculty in developing material and assisting in the delivery of GIS and data services across campus. With over 15 years' experience at UTM (as student and employee) Tanya recognizes the significance of creating a holistic environment for students, staff, and the community alike, and would welcome the opportunity to serve you on the Campus Affairs Committee.

Ron Wener

I am excited about the possibility of representing Administrative staff on the UTM Campus Affairs committee. I hope to help to build on my extensive experience supporting UofT students. I am fortunate to have worked with great students in all three campus Career Centres, in co-op at UTSC and in the Faculty of Medicine. I've gained a greater appreciation and knowledge of governance in my roles representing admin staff on the Staff Recognition and Awards Committee, the University Career Development committee and in on the USW negotiating committee.
