Candidates' Statements

Tayyab Rashid

UTSC's strength and resilience comes from its diversity. I see it unfolding and radiating in the confidential confines of my therapy room or at public podiums. I have the pleasure and privilege of leading initiatives like Flourish and Strengths-Based Resilience. I play an active role in endeavors like TEDx and Minds Matter Magazine. At the Campus Council, I would like to work with my colleagues to put in place policies and procedures to help staff, faculty and most importantly the students—explore, express and enhance their strengths—to make UTSC a campus of cultural inclusivity, dignity and resilience.

Elsa Kiosses

Elsa is the Health Promotion Nurse at the Health & Wellness Centre at UTSC for the past 17 years. She works on wellness initiatives promoting a healthy campus through student programming, events, and committees. She has meaningful interactions with students in many capacities that include coordinating volunteers and work-study students in 7 Wellness Peer Programs that promote healthy lifestyles and harm reduction. She also coordinates the Mental Health Network and recently the Sexual Health Collaborative which include student, staff, faculty and community partners to build community capacity. In addition, Elsa provides students with direct nursing care in a clinical setting.
