

Outline of the Organization of the University of Toronto

1. ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

The senior administrative officers of the University include:

The President (<http://www.president.utoronto.ca/>)
Vice-President and Provost (<http://www.provost.utoronto.ca>)
Vice-President, Advancement (<https://advancement.utoronto.ca/>)
Vice-President, University Operations (<http://vpuo.utoronto.ca/>)
Vice-President, Human Resources and Equity (<http://www.hrandequity.utoronto.ca>)
Vice-President, Research and Innovation (<http://www.research.utoronto.ca>)
Vice-President, International (<http://international.utoronto.ca/>)

Vice-President and Principal, University of Toronto Mississauga
(<http://www.utm.utoronto.ca/vp-principal/>)
Vice-President and Principal, University of Toronto Scarborough
(<http://www.uts.utoronto.ca>)

2. THREE CAMPUSES

The University of Toronto is comprised of three campuses: the St. George campus, the University of Toronto Mississauga (UTM), and the University of Toronto Scarborough (UTSC). Although the campuses themselves are separate, their academic communities are linked through programs of study and common research interests. The St. George campus buildings, in downtown Toronto, are home to the largest number of students and programs. Scarborough campus, about 30 kilometres to the east, has its own academic community nested on 120 hectares of protected parkland. The Mississauga campus, about 30 kilometres to the west of St. George, is situated on the curve of the Credit River.

3. THE COLLEGE SYSTEM

The University is composed of several colleges, each with a distinctive feel and sense of community. All students in the oldest and largest faculty, the Faculty of Arts and Science, must register in a college. The benefit of college membership has been extended to the professional faculties; accordingly, two of the colleges - Innis and New - are multi-faculty colleges accepting some professional students as well as students in Arts and Science.

The St. George colleges owned and operated entirely by the University are:

Innis College (<http://www.innis.utoronto.ca/>)
New College (<http://www.newcollege.utoronto.ca/>)
University College (<http://www.uc.utoronto.ca/>)
Woodsworth College (<http://www.wdw.utoronto.ca/>)

The federated universities represent separate legal entities with their own independent boards. They appoint their own staff and own their own buildings but their Arts and

3. THE COLLEGE SYSTEM (cont'd)

Science teaching staff, curriculum and students are an integral part of the Faculty of Arts and Science of the University. They are:

The University of St. Michael's College (<http://stmikes.utoronto.ca>)
The University of Trinity College (<http://www.trinity.utoronto.ca/>)
Victoria University (<http://www.vicu.utoronto.ca/>)

In addition to the undergraduate colleges, the University is also the site of a consortium of independent theological colleges (Toronto School of Theology - <http://www.tst.edu/>), which offer graduate academic instruction in theology as well as their own individual pastoral degrees. The consortium includes Knox College, St. Augustine's, Wycliffe, Regis, Emmanuel (within Victoria College), Trinity and St. Michael's.

Massey College is an incorporated body providing residential and other amenities for students registered in the School of Graduate Studies. (<http://www.masseycollege.ca/>)

4. FACULTIES AND SCHOOLS

Students enroll for a program of studies in one of the faculties or schools. There are 14 professional faculties and schools, in addition to the Faculty of Arts and Science, the School of Graduate Studies and the School of Continuing Studies. Of these, the Faculty of Applied Science and Engineering, Ontario Institute for Studies in Education of the University of Toronto and the Faculty of Medicine are the largest and consist of multiple departments. Almost all of the buildings and facilities of the professional faculties are located on the downtown campus. Some divisions have interdisciplinary centres and institutes associated with them. A complete listing of divisions, departments, centres and institutes can be found at:

5. SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES

The School of Graduate Studies (SGS) (<http://www.sgs.utoronto.ca/>) promotes excellence in graduate education and oversees graduate studies at over eighty graduate units (departments, centres and institutes), providing faculty members with unique opportunities for interdisciplinary scholarship. Besides its administrative function, SGS is available to provide expertise, advice and information to individual graduate units, helping them to attract and retain excellent students. SGS undertakes frequent reviews of the graduate programs, to promote the highest academic standards.

6. SCHOOL OF CONTINUING STUDIES

The School of Continuing Studies (SCS) (<http://learn.utoronto.ca/site3.aspx>) is dedicated to meeting the professional and intellectual needs of adults in the community. The School offers a wide range of challenging and rewarding non-degree and certification programs conducted both in-class and through distance education classrooms around the world. For over 100 years, SCS has developed programs for the adult learner in the arts, humanities, business and professional development, writing and literature, media and new technology, science, ESL and other languages.

7. TEACHING HOSPITALS

The University is affiliated with some of Canada's finest clinical and public health facilities for student clinical placements. Through the University of Toronto, the Health Science Faculties are fully affiliated with ten teaching hospitals. The University is partially affiliated with 11 community teaching hospitals and five Public Boards of Health. The fully affiliated hospitals are:

Baycrest Centre for Geriatric Care (<http://www.baycrest.org/>)
Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (<http://www.camh.net/>)
Holland Bloorview Kids Rehabilitation Hospital (<http://www.hollandbloorview.ca/>)
The Hospital for Sick Children (<http://www.sickkids.on.ca/>)
Mount Sinai Hospital (<http://www.mtsinai.on.ca/>)
St. Michael's Hospital (<http://www.stmichaelshospital.com/>)
Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre (<http://www.sunnybrook.ca/>)
University Health Network (<http://www.uhn.ca/>)
Women's College Hospital (<http://www.womenscollegethospita.ca/>)

8. UNIVERSITY LIBRARY SYSTEM

The University of Toronto Library system (<https://library.utoronto.ca/>) is the largest in Canada and ranks fourth among North American research libraries.

9. ANCILLARY ORGANIZATIONS

Most of the ancillary entities are wholly owned and controlled by the University but are the subjects of separate financial reporting because of the special nature of their operations. They include:

Residences, Conference, Parking, and Food & Beverage Services	(http://www.ancillary.utoronto.ca/)
Hart House	(http://www.harthouse.utoronto.ca/)
University of Toronto Asset Management	(http://www.utam.utoronto.ca/)
University of Toronto Press ¹	(http://www.utppublishing.com/)
Hungarian Research Institute of Canada ²	(http://chem-eng.utoronto.ca/~diosady/hric.html)

¹The Press is a not-for-profit corporation without share capital.

² The Hungarian Research Institute of Canada, while designated as a research ancillary, is not owned or wholly controlled by the University.

10. RESIDENCES

The following residences, providing approximately 6,250 places, are owned and operated by the University:

St. George Campus	http://www.housing.utoronto.ca/

11. PHYSICAL LOCATION OF UNIVERSITY PROPERTY AND BUILDINGS

Most of the University buildings are located in central Toronto on or near the St. George Campus, which occupies approximately 50 hectares roughly bounded by Spadina Avenue, Bloor Street, Queen's Park and College Street.

The University of Toronto Scarborough is on its own campus 33 kilometres to the east (117 hectares).

The University of Toronto at Mississauga is on its own campus about 33 kilometres to the west (89 hectares).

In addition to the three campuses, the University properties include:

- The Institute for Aerospace Studies
- The Hart House Caledon Farm
- Space occupied by the University of Toronto Press
- Joker's Hill (King City)
- The University Forest (near Dorset)
- The University Survey Camp (Gull Lake)
