The Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters, 1995 requires the Provost to report annually in statistical format on cases of academic discipline to Academic Board.

GOVERNANCE PATH:

1. Agenda Committee [for information] (September 23, 2014)
2. Academic Board [for information] (October 2, 2014)

PREVIOUS ACTION TAKEN:

On November 21, 2013, the Academic Board received the Annual Report on Cases of Academic Discipline for 2012-13.

HIGHLIGHTS:

Normally at this time of the year, the Academic Board receives academic discipline statistics from the previous year (2013-14). In order to ensure that our statistics are robust and reported consistently across divisions, we will be reviewing the data we collect, and the data collection process. This may result in changes to the statistics form, which means we will be deferring this year's reporting until the spring.

Professor Sioban Nelson, Vice-Provost, Faculty and Academic Life, will be leading the review by holding consultations with appropriate university offices, including academic integrity offices. These consultations will occur during the fall of 2014.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS:

There are no financial implications.
