 Re: Election Guidelines 2010

Attached for your consideration are the draft Election Guidelines 2010. The proposed minor revisions to the Election Guidelines 2009 to create the Election Guidelines 2010 are outlined in the chart below. In general, effort was made to use more precise and consistent language and terms throughout the Guidelines. Where necessary, procedures were elaborated upon in order to provide greater direction to the reader and to reduce the likelihood of misunderstanding. Sections were reorganized to improve ease of reference, and some minor inconsistencies were eliminated.

Election Guidelines 2010	Changes to Election Guidelines 2009 for Approval
Section 1 (p. 8) 1.1 1.2 1.2(5)	(1) This section was revised to provide more detailed information about the role and powers of the Governing Council to assist individuals who are considering running in Governing Council elections. (2) Information addressing the role and responsibilities of members of the Governing Council was expanded. (3) Some introductory text has been added which outlines the relationship between the Council and its Boards and Committees.
Section 2 (p. 13)	(1) The role of the Elections Committee, the University Affairs Board, and the Governing Council vis-à-vis these Guidelines are discussed. This section replaces sections 2.a. and 3 of the Guidelines, 2009 .
Section 3 (p. 14) 3.1 3.3	(1) Section 3 (formerly Section 2 in the Guidelines, 2009) was amended and reorganized. (a) Instead of a seemingly exhaustive list of the CRO's responsibilities, the words "including but not limited to" were added; (b) "violations of campaign rules" replaced with the broader phrase of "violation of these Guidelines "; (c) Deletion of "creates nomination forms for use in connection with the election" – this detail is unnecessary. The CRO is responsible for implementing the Guidelines , which includes creating all necessary documents; (d) "CRO's decisions concerning technical invalidation of nominations may be appealed to the Elections Committee" replaced with "Certain decisions of the CRO may be appealed to the Elections Committee in accordance with these Guidelines " – the CRO's decision on matters other than technical invalidation, such as interpretation of these Guidelines may also be appealed; and (e) Additional information about the CRO's office and contact information was inserted. (f) Situations when a member of the Elections Committee should not serve as an Election Overseer was expanded to include matters arising from "...the constituency of the candidate she or he is endorsing."
Section 4 (p. 16)	(1) Additional defined terms were inserted: "Campaign Period", "College", "Constituent College", "Federated Universities", " Guidelines ", "Librarian", and "University". (2) The definitions of "Administrative Staff", "Full-Time Undergraduate Student", "Graduate Student", "Part-Time Undergraduate Student", "Student", and "Teaching Staff" were revised where required to ensure consistency with the University of Toronto Act . (3) In addition, the following changes were made to the definitions:

Election Guidelines 2010	Changes to Election Guidelines 2009 for Approval
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) “Campaigning” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) 2009 version: “Campaigning” means any attempt by an individual, individuals or an organization to encourage a voter to cast a ballot in favour or in opposition of a candidate. This may occur with or without campaign material” (ii) Revised version: “Campaigning” or “Campaign” includes any conduct of and/or attempt by a candidate or by the candidate’s supporters, whether individuals or organizations, to encourage a voter to cast a ballot in favour or in opposition of a candidate, whether or not Campaign Material is used. (b) “Campaign Material” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) 2009 version: “Campaign material” means any item, design, sound, symbol, or mark that is created or copied in any form in order to and/or likely to influence at least one voter to cast a ballot in favour or in opposition of a candidate; (ii) Revised version: “Campaign Material” includes any advertisement, blog, design, display, flyer, item, literature, social networking tool, sound, symbol, mark, website, electronic media, in any form, electronic or otherwise, that is used, created or copied in order to and/or likely to influence at least one voter to cast a ballot in favour or in opposition of a candidate. (c) “Fair Market Value” of a product or service <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) 2009 version: “Fair Market Value of a product or service” shall be the lowest price, without special concessions or discounts, that is available in Toronto for that product or service, to all persons who approach a person or company that sells, or deals in, that product or service. (ii) Revised version: “Fair Market Value” of a product or service means the average price, without special concessions or discounts, that is available in Toronto for that product or service, to all persons who approach a person or company that sells, or deals in, that product or service. (4) “E-mail Lists” was moved from the definitions section to Appendix “A”, as this term is only referenced there.
Section 5 (p. 18)	(1) The campaign period has been shortened from five to three weeks in response to suggestions received from past candidates and members of the University community who provided feedback on the elections process to the Elections Committee.
NEW Section 6 (p. 19)	(2) A new section was inserted to address the University’s commitment to individuals with disabilities. [This text will require revision once further consultation with appropriate University officers has occurred. Guidance with respect to offices that might partner with the CRO to assist in accepting proof of disability from individuals from all constituencies who would like to request election accommodation arrangements is currently being sought. Therefore, current text addressing registration with Accessibility Services Offices will likely be altered.]
Section 7¹ (Administrative Staff) (p. 20) 7.6(2) 7.6(3)(iv) 7.6(4) 7.6(4)(a)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (1) The Eligibility section was revised to highlight the two criteria for eligibility and describe them more precisely. (2) The Nomination Forms section was renamed Nomination Forms and Proof of Citizenship and revised to clarify the requirements. (3) Text in the Nominators section has been added indicating that all nominations made by a nominator who has nominated more individuals for election than there are vacancies will be void. (4) The Candidate’s Statement section was renamed Nominee’s Statement, and revisions include the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) insertion of the following: “Individuals seeking nomination may wish to provide

Proposed Changes for the Election Guidelines for 2010

Election Guidelines 2010	Changes to Election Guidelines 2009 for Approval
SECTION 9 (Students) (p. 56) 9.3 9.7(3) 9.20	(1) The definitions in this section were revised using the language in the Act and to make them consistent with the definitions in the Section 4 of these Guidelines. (2) The Constituencies section was inserted to introduce the various constituencies for Students for the purpose of the Governing Council elections. (3) The Nominators sections has been revised to reflect that 5² rather than 20 nominators are required for students seeking nomination as a part-time undergraduate student. (4) The Equality of Votes section has been revised to deal with the possibility that two Students from the same College, Federated University, Faculty or School receive the same number of votes.
SECTION 10 (NEW) (Academic Board) (p. 78)	(1) This section, dealing exclusively with the election of Teaching Staff and Librarians on the Academic Board, is entirely new. Previous versions of these Guidelines did not explicitly address the Academic Board elections. The content of this section was adapted from section 8.
Appendix A (p. 99) (g) (h) (b)(i)	(1) The Appendix, which was renamed “Guidelines for Campaigning and Enforcement of the Election Guidelines 2010, contains revisions to the campaign guidelines designed to improve clarity. Among other changes, the following guidelines were added: (a) Candidates shall not interfere with a voter’s freedom to cast a ballot for the candidate of her or his choice or compromise the secrecy of the ballot process. (b) A candidate shall not invite any elector to cast her or his vote using a computer made available by the candidate; however, this rule shall not be construed as a prohibition against a candidate generally encouraging voter participation. (2) A statement outlining that a serious violation can be determined by the Election Overseers to have been committed even if it appears that there was no intent on the part of the candidate to seek to gain unfair advantage in the electoral process was added to the Serious and Severe Violations section.
Appendix C, D, E, F, G (p. 106)	(1) These Appendices containing information on campaigning in residences on the St. George campus were revised with updated information. (2)
Appendix F and G (p. 109)	(1) These Appendices containing guidelines on campaigning in residences on the University of Toronto at Scarborough and University of Toronto at Mississauga campuses were added.

² Part-time undergraduate students were required to obtain the signatures of 15 nominators between 1973 and 1986. This number was increased to 20 in 1987 and has remained in effect since that time.
