MEMORANDUM

TO: MEMBERS OF THE UNIVERSITY AFFAIRS BOARD

FROM: JIM DELANEY

SUBJECT: RECOGNIZED CAMPUS GROUPS

In accordance with the Policy on Recognition of Campus Groups, the following groups have been given recognition until September 30, 2002.

Voluntary organizations are a traditional component of campus life. These organizations contribute in a variety of ways to the educational, intellectual, recreational, social and cultural life of the University community.

Recognition of campus groups by the University through the Office of Student Affairs provides a number of benefits and opportunities: 1) the right to use the University's name in conjunction with group activities; 2) eligibility to use Hart House and International Student Centre facilities and services; 3) use of other University facilities and meeting spaces at no cost or at a lower cost (compared to external organizations); 4) eligibility to apply for temporary office space on the St. George Campus at the Sussex Club House and the International Student Centre; 5) access to web site hosting services for the organization through Student Affairs and other Internet services through the Information Commons; 6) listings in directories provided to the University community and to the public as an official University of Toronto campus group; 7) access to free voice mail services for clubs through Student Affairs; and 8) access to other services and resources.

An organization seeking recognition must submit an application to the Office of Student Affairs and a copy of group's constitution. The constitution should outline the group's purpose, objectives and procedures. It should address organizational structure, membership, meetings, the election or appointment of members in leadership positions, amendments to the constitution, and rules of conduct. A commitment to democracy and accountability should also be reflected.

Membership in a recognized campus group must be open to any member of the University community. While discriminatory membership practices are not allowed, it is recognized that certain groups could well be homogeneous in nature without being discriminatory. Status as non-voting members may be extended to interested persons from outside the University.

Under the terms of the Policy, the University will not attempt to censor, control or interfere with any group on the basis of its philosophy, beliefs, interests or opinions expressed unless and until these lead to activities which are illegal or which infringe the rights and freedoms of others within the community. By the same token, recognition as a campus group implies neither endorsement of a group's beliefs or philosophy, nor the assumption of legal liability for the group's activities.

All groups that have been granted recognition by the Office of Student Affairs for the 2001-02 year are listed here. More information about these organizations is available on the World Wide Web at <<http://www.sa.utoronto.ca/>>.
