ITEM IDENTIFICATION:

Compulsory Non-Academic Incidental Fees – Student Society Fees: Report on Financial Statements and Internal Auditor’s Opinion

JURISDICTIONAL INFORMATION:

The Policy for Compulsory Non-Academic Incidental Fees requires each student society that receives the proceeds of a compulsory non-academic incidental fee to submit, by December 31st each year, financial statements audited by a public accountant, or else obtain from the University’s Internal Auditor an exemption as provided in the Policy.

Section B.2.b. of the Policy provides that fees are withheld from societies failing to meet the December 31st deadline until such time as the auditor’s report is received by the University. Pursuant to the advice of the Internal Audit Department, fees are also withheld from societies if there is a denial of audit opinion, or if there is another element of the audited statements which requires special attention.

PREVIOUS ACTION TAKEN:

The report is presented annually to the Board.

HIGHLIGHTS:

The submission and review of annual financial statements of student societies is considered an important accountability mechanism.

See “Objective and Scope” and “Comparative Summary of Auditors’ Opinions” in the attached report from the Internal Auditor’s department. External auditors’ comments on the 2006-07 financial statements are available for viewing by Board members through the Office of Vice-Provost, Students.

As noted in the report, a number of societies have yet to submit financial statements for the previous fiscal year, and in several cases, for more than one year. In some cases, the organizations have provided an indication of when the statements will be submitted. In other cases, the societies require assistance in understanding the expectations set out under the Policy for Compulsory Non-Academic Incidental Fees. The Office of the Vice-Provost, Students will continue to attempt to work with these groups in order to ensure that the requirements of the Policy are met. Fees are withheld from societies until the relevant financial reporting requirements are satisfied.

Two organizations have yet to submit financial statements for three or more fiscal years:

Erindale Part-Time Undergraduate Students Association (EPUS) – Years outstanding: 2002-03, 2003-04, 2004-05, 2005-06 and 2006-07. EPUS has advised the Office of the Vice-Provost, Students that it has engaged the assistance of the Association of Part-time Undergraduate Students (APUS) in preparing the outstanding financial reports.

Physical & Occupational Therapy Graduate Students’ Council – Years outstanding: 2002-03, 2003-04, 2004-05, 2005-06. Representatives of the society are working with staff in order to understand the University’s expectations and provide adequate reporting from the missing years. The audit for the immediate previous year (2006/07) was submitted.

FINANCIAL AND/OR PLANNING IMPLICATIONS:

There are no direct financial implications for the University’s operating budget.

RECOMMENDATION:

The report is presented for information.
