INTRODUCTION

Student societies within the University of Toronto vary widely in size, range of interest and level of activity. However, the recognized student societies have at least three things in common:

- they represent and are responsible to given "constituencies";
- membership is automatic;
- the University collects non-academic incidental fees from each student eligible to be a member.

Forty student societies and one affiliate fit the above criteria. These societies are required by Governing Council Policy to:

- maintain adequate and proper accounting records;
- submit financial statements audited or reviewed by an independent auditor, licensed under the Public Accountancy Act, to the Office of the Vice Provost, Students of the University by December 31st of each year.

Student societies may apply for an exemption from the audit requirement if the following conditions are met:

- incidental fees collected on behalf of the student society amount to less than $30,000 in the fiscal year, and "other revenues" amount to less than $7,500;
- the request for exemption is made prior to the midpoint of the fiscal year concerned and is supported by at least two-thirds of the full membership of the Council or Board of Directors of the society;
- the Internal Audit Department is satisfied that the society is maintaining proper books of account and supporting documentation.

Societies seeking audit exemptions are required to submit their unaudited financial statements and books of accounts and supporting documentation to the Internal Audit Department for review by December 31st of each year.

Regulations and policies relating to student societies are outlined in the Handbook for Student Societies, published by the Office of the Vice Provost, Students

OBJECTIVE AND SCOPE

This report summarizes the student societies' Auditors' opinions, noting societies that have been granted an exemption from the audit requirement, as well as societies that have not submitted audited statements or requested an exemption.

The report covers the twelve months, September 1, 2008 to August 31, 2009. Twenty eight societies have submitted their financial statements to the Office of the Vice Provost, Students or have been granted an exemption from the audit requirement by the Internal Audit Department. As at March 5, 2010, 13 societies (32%) had not submitted their 2008/2009 audited financial statements. Incidental fees are not released to the societies until audited financial statements are submitted.

SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT NOTES TO SELECTED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The following summarizes the significant note(s) to the audited financial statements received and reported on by Internal Audit:

Engineering Society – The Society was named as a defendant in a pending lawsuit involving a claim for $1.5 million for damages from injuries sustained by the plaintiff during the normal course of the Society's activity. The claim has been withdrawn by the claimant.
