ITEM IDENTIFICATION:

Annual Report: Recognized Campus Groups, University of Toronto St. George

JURISDICTIONAL INFORMATION:

Section 5.6 of the University Affairs Board Terms of Reference states:

The Board receives annually, from the appropriate administrators, reports on services within its areas of responsibility, including but not limited to multi-campus services and offices, Campus Police, Human Resources and Equity, crisis response, and campus organizations.

GOVERNANCE PATH:1. University Affairs Board (May 26, 2015) [For Information]*PREVIOUS ACTION TAKEN:

The report is presented annually to the Board.

HIGHLIGHTS:

Voluntary organizations formed by members of the University community are a traditional part of campus life, and contribute in a significant way to its intellectual, political, social and cultural diversity and richness.

Further to the Policy on the Recognition of Campus Groups, recognized campus groups are organizations whose membership is comprised of individuals who have elected to participate.

In accordance with the University's Policy on the Recognition of Campus Groups, this is a report on administrative decisions to grant, deny or withdraw recognition for groups based on the St. George campus for the 2014-15 academic year.

- There are 662 groups listed in this memorandum that have been granted recognition including: 181 new groups and 481 groups that successfully renewed campus group status recognition. 54 applications are under review.
- Recognition has not been denied or withdrawn from any groups.

Since many campus organizations address the complex issues of the world around us, engagement in a campus group can often provide important opportunities to be exposed to different ideas and perspectives. This helps the University provide meaningful opportunities for debate and dissent, and fosters the development of students' understanding of difference. Participation in campus groups provides means by which students integrate and engage with small communities within the University of Toronto.

FINANCIAL AND/OR PLANNING IMPLICATIONS:

There are no financial implications for the University's operating budget.

RECOMMENDATION:

The report is presented for information only.

Recognized Campus Groups 2014-15 - St. George Campus

MEMORANDUM

To: Members of the University Affairs Board

From: Lucy Fromowitz, Assistant Vice-President, Student Life

Date: May 19, 2015

Subject: St. George Campus Recognized Campus Groups, 2014-15

The size and diversity of the student community at the St. George campus provides an extraordinary number of opportunities for students to participate in a vast array of activities undertaken by campus organizations. Participation in these groups forms an integral part of the student experience. Campus groups contribute in a variety of ways to the educational, intellectual, recreational, social and cultural life of the University community. For many students, involvement in voluntary campus organizations is not only a traditional part of campus life, it forms a significant component of their learning while at the University.

Many recognized campus organizations engage in co-curricular activities which enrich the participation of their members in their own academic programs. Involvement in a campus organization can also provide significant learning opportunities for students with respect to leadership, civic and community engagement, and organizational capacity. Since many campus organizations address the complex issues of the world around us, engagement in a campus group can often provide important opportunities to be exposed to different ideas and perspectives. This helps the University provide meaningful opportunities for debate and dissent, and fosters the development of students' understanding of difference. Finally, participation in campus groups provides one means by which students integrate and engage with small communities within the University of Toronto.

In September 2014, the Office of Student Life, in partnership with a number of campus hosts, launched a series of 10 "Club Hubs", which provided space and opportunities for campus groups with similar interests or focus to learn and share with each other, identify projects and initiatives from multi-disciplinary approaches and perspectives, and identify topics and issues of common interest. Examples of such "Club Hubs" and their campus hosts include the Community Outreach and Engagement Network (Centre for Community Partnerships), the Faith & Spirituality Hub (Multi-Faith Centre), the Cultural Club Network (Anti-Racism & Cultural Diversity Office), the Mentorship & Leadership Hub (Office of Student Life), the Environmental & Sustainability Hub (U of T Environmental Resource Network), and the Career Club Hub (Career Centre). As we continue to work with campus groups and more opportunities are identified to develop further "Club Hubs", we will continue to seek out and work with campus partners to host these groups.

In accordance with the University's Policy on Recognition of Campus Groups, this is a report on administrative decisions to grant, deny or withdraw recognition for groups based on the St. George campus in this academic year. The campus groups listed below have been granted recognition until September 30, 2015.

All groups that have been granted recognition for the 2014-15 academic year are listed in this memorandum.

Recognition of campus groups by the University provides a number of basic benefits and opportunities:

- 1) the right to use the name of the University in the name of the group and in conjunction with group activities;
- 2) eligibility to University facilities and meeting spaces at no cost or at a lower cost compared to external organizations;
- 3) eligibility to apply for temporary office space;
- 4) access to web site hosting services for the organization and other internet services;
- 5) listings in directories provided to the University community and to the public as an official University of Toronto campus group;
- 6) verification letters confirming recognition status (sometimes required by banks and other external organizations); and
- 7) access to other services and resources.

An organization seeking recognition must submit an annual application to the Office of Student Life and a copy of group's constitution. The constitution should outline the group's purpose, objectives and procedures. It should address organizational structure, membership, meetings, the election or appointment of members in leadership positions, amendments to the constitution, and rules of conduct. A commitment to democracy and accountability to members should also be reflected.

Full membership in a recognized campus group (including eligibility to vote and serve in a leadership position) must be open to any member of the University community (including all students, staff, faculty and alumni) from any division. While discriminatory membership practices are not allowed, it is acknowledged that certain groups could well be homogeneous in nature without being discriminatory. Status as non-voting members may be extended to interested persons from outside the University.

Groups seeking recognition by the University must be genuine campus organizations and generally non-profit in nature. A recognized campus group cannot be controlled by any external body. However, many organizations are affiliated with provincial, national or international bodies and other external groups.

Under the terms of the Policy, the University will not attempt to censor, control or interfere with any group on the basis of its philosophy, beliefs, interests or opinions expressed unless and until these lead to activities which are illegal or which infringe the rights and freedoms of others within the community. By the same token, recognition as a campus group implies neither endorsement of a group's beliefs or philosophy, nor the assumption of legal liability for the group's activities.

Please note that pursuant to the Policy, the recognition of groups which draw their membership from only one academic division is delegated to the governance body of that division.

It is important to note that there are hundreds of additional clubs, many athletics and recreation activities, Hart House clubs and committees, as well as recognized campus groups based on other campuses which-while not listed here -add significantly to the educational, intellectual, recreational, social, and cultural life of the UofT community. In addition, many students are involved in student governments, college and faculty student societies, course unions, and departmental student associations.

Recognition Granted (as categorized as 'Recognized Student Group' on Ulife).
