Strategic Plan 2019

Inspiring Inclusive Excellence

Purpose

The purpose of the exercise is to augment the University of Toronto's global stature as a result of a participatory process to develop a shared and coherent plan for a bold future of inclusive excellence for our campus - one that offers a breadth of high quality and accessible programs; attracts and inspires the best minds from everywhere; has a reputation for global prominence in several unique areas of scholarship; and leads partnerships that connect communities, generate solutions, and enhance social justice.

UTSC Strategic Plan:

Inspiring Inclusive Excellence

U of T Scarborough is in the process of developing its five-year strategic plan. This site will provide you with all the information you will need to stay informed about the progress in our journey of renewal and revitalization for your campus. We have included several relevant documents that form the foundations of our work to develop a new strategic plan for the University of Toronto Scarborough. Throughout the process we will be looking for input from members of the University community.
