Revisions to the Academic Board Terms of Reference

JURISDICTIONAL INFORMATION:

Under Section 2(14)(e) of the University of Toronto Act, 1971, the Governing Council has established Boards and Committees and assigned responsibilities among those bodies through their terms of reference. The Governing Council has periodically approved changes in Board and Committee terms of reference to respond to changing circumstances and expectations of governance.

GOVERNANCE PATH:

1. Academic Board [for information] (October 12, 2021)
2. Executive Committee [for endorsement and forwarding] (October 19, 2021)
3. Governing Council [for approval] (October 28, 2021)

PREVIOUS ACTION TAKEN:

In October 2011, the Governing Council approved revisions to the Academic Board Terms of Reference arising from recommendations of the Report of the Task Force on Governance (2010). The main revisions consisted of a) making explicit in the description of the Board's overall function the final decision-making authority of the Board in purely academic matters and b) clarifying the Board's responsibility for receiving divisional academic plans for information and feedback. In addition to these changes, procedural options were added to allow for certain routine items to be placed on the "consent" agenda of a Board meeting and for certain reports for information to be published electronically in between meetings, with notification provided to members.

The Governing Council members of the Academic Board are appointed annually by the Governing Council and may be re-appointed subject to their continued membership on the Governing Council. One-third of the voting members (normally 39).

3. COMMITTEES

3.1 Standing Committees

The Standing Committees of the Board are:

Agenda Committee

Academic Appeals Committee

Committee on Academic Policy and Programs

Planning and Budget Committee

3.2 Special Committees

From time to time the Board may find it useful to establish Special Committees to consider particular issues. Special Committees are normally formed on the recommendation of the Agenda Committee, when, in the view of the Board, one or more of the following conditions exist:

- a) an issue cannot be accommodated easily within Standing Committee schedules - either intense scrutiny is required in a relatively short time or thorough examination of complex issues is necessary over a relatively long period of time;
- b) an issue does not fall readily under an existing Standing Committee - either because it is not clearly within any Standing Committee's terms of reference or because aspects of the issue cut across several bodies;
- c) there is a need for the participation of experts not represented on the relevant committee.

A recommendation from the Agenda Committee to establish a Special Committee shall include terms of reference, an outline of membership, the anticipated reporting date and the date of disestablishment.

3.3 Striking Committee

The Striking Committee, established by the Agenda Committee, shall recommend annually and as vacancies occur to the Academic Board the non-Governing Council membership of the Board (except teaching staff and librarians, who are elected) and its Committees and various other appointments.¹⁴

4. FUNCTION

The Academic Board is responsible for consideration of policy in the academic area and for monitoring matters within its area of responsibility. In general, the Board is concerned with matters affecting the teaching, learning, and research functions of the University, the establishment of University objectives and priorities, the development of long-term and short-term plans and the effective use of resources in the course of these pursuits.

Except in purely academic matters (those specified in clauses 2(14)(g), (h), and (n)¹⁵ of the Act), the Board does not have final decision-making authority. In most instances,

¹⁴ Appointment of two members of the Academic Board to the Provost's Advisory Committee on the Library recommended to the Board; on the recommendation of the President, the appointment of the Council of Ontario Universities' Academic Colleague and Alternate recommended to the Board.

¹⁵ Clause 2(14)(g) refers to conducting examinations and appointing examiners, (h) refers to matters arising in connection with the award of fellowships, scholarships, medals, prizes and other awards for academic achievement, and (n) refers to the determination and regulation of standards for the admission of students to the University, the contents and curricula of all programs and courses of study and the requirements for graduation.

recommendations of the Board are confirmed by the Executive Committee on behalf of Council. Matters having significant impact on the University as a whole, those having serious steering effects on the development of a particular division or those having a major impact on the relationships amongst divisions and relationships between the University and the community at large, will normally require the approval of the Governing Council.

5. AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

A list of areas for which the Academic Board is responsible is provided in Section 5.1. An explanation of those matters which are brought forward directly to the Board for its consideration is contained in Section 5.2, followed by a list of matters brought to the Board through its Standing Committees in Section 5.3.

As outlined in the Report of the Chairman's Advisory Committee on Governance (Appendix E, page 26, May 10, 1988), “except in purely academic matters (those specified in sections 2.14 (g), (h), and (n) of the University of Toronto Act, 1971), the Board does not have final decision-making authority. In most instances, recommendations of the Board are confirmed by the Executive Committee ...” on behalf of the Governing Council. Matters having significant impact on the University as a whole will normally require the approval of the Governing Council.

5.1 The following areas are within the Board's responsibility. Matters within these areas may be considered by the Board itself and/or one of its Standing Committees:

- Academic appeals
- Academic appointments and individual appointments
- Academic discipline
- Academic priorities for fundraising

This presentation will set out the strategic importance of prioritized capital projects as part of the University’s strategic and operational planning process so as to provide context for the Capital Projects expected to be coming forward to governance bodies in that year.” [SECTION 1.(b)]

6. PROCEDURES

6.1 Meetings

The Academic Board will meet in open session. Appointments and other matters of a personal nature will be dealt with in camera, usually at the end of the meeting. Because of its size, the Board will use the procedures set out for the meetings of Governing Council.

The Agenda Committee may determine that an item should be placed on a “consent” portion of the agenda. Those items are not given individual consideration by the Board, unless a member so requests. Rather, members with questions for clarification, or requests for further information, contact the assessor or other contact person shown on the item in advance of the meeting. Members with concerns who would like an item to be discussed by the Board should notify the Secretary at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting. Upon the request of any member, the matter will be considered by the Board in the usual manner.

Where a consent item requires a resolution of the Board, and where no member has requested consideration of the item in the usual manner, the motion will be placed before the Board and seconded, and it will normally immediately proceed to a vote without introduction or discussion.

Where a consent item is for information only, and where no member has requested consideration of the item in the usual manner, the item will normally be taken as received by the Board without introduction or discussion.

6.3 Additional Reports for Information

To keep members abreast of developments in a timely manner, certain reports for information required by these terms of reference and others as decided by the Agenda Committee from time to time will be considered by the members of the Board following their electronic publication.
