Demand for programs remains strong. Fall 2021 incoming undergraduate class is 11% larger than in Fall 2020.

Increased summer session enrolment as students are more interested in taking courses across all three terms.

Increased costs for learning technology, cleaning, and student supports. Savings from lower occupancy and travel restrictions.

ANCILLARY BUDGET

University residences have rebounded quickly and occupancy rates are high, but still limited in some buildings due to public health measures.

Food and transportation services have been significantly impacted due to reduced campus occupancy.
