JURISDICTIONAL INFORMATION:

The Business Board is responsible for monitoring health and safety compliance.

Professor Hannah-Moffat has undertaken to provide the Business Board with quarterly reports on the University's compliance with legal requirements in the area of Health and Safety.

GOVERNANCE PATH:

- 1. Business Board [For Information] (November 23, 2022)

PREVIOUS ACTION TAKEN:

Not applicable.

HIGHLIGHTS:

1. Ontario Ministry of Labour (MOL) & Public Health Visits and Orders

During this reporting period (July 1 to September 30, 2022) the Ontario Ministry of Labour (MOL) visited the University eight times and issued no orders. The MOL visited UTSC on six occasions: four regarding an electrical safety incident, one regarding an injury involving a dolly, and one related to a complaint about eating areas. There were two visits to St. George: one regarding a slip-and-fall injury and one regarding a reported occupational illness (Noise-induced hearing loss). There were no visits to UTM during the reporting period.

2. Regulatory Visits

n/a

3. Incidents Abroad Relating to Students

During this reporting period, there were no incidents to report involving students abroad.

4. Summary

In summary, based on the reports I have received through the operation of our occupational health and safety policy, and to the best of my knowledge, the University is in compliance with its health and safety obligations.
