WHAT ABOUT?

The information collected will expand our understanding about the regions with whom we have the most linkages, fields of engagement, type of partnerships, and more. In addition, this study might assist in identifying potential gaps in our international engagement approaches and ways to address them.

International Week

Celebrating our international stories, aspirations, progress and vision

Symposium

It will celebrate UTSC's international contributions in research, teaching, learning and capacity building. It will also explore current challenges and areas of great opportunities for international engagement.

cuisine & folk dances

It will feature international cuisine made by local Scarborough restaurants. It will also bring local folk dancers to campus showcasing world music and dance.

Intercultural Competencies workshop

It will bring local cultural leaders and U of T intercultural experts who will offer a dynamic learning experience on global citizenship and intercultural communication.

More...

More events will be organized. Other offices will be encouraged to join
