Annual Report on Academic Appeals, UTM (2022-2023)

Annual Report to the Academic Affairs Committee (September 1, 2022 – August 31, 2023)

The UTM Academic Appeals Subcommittee (AAS) reviews appeals regarding decisions made by the Committee on Standing (COS) concerning petitions filed by undergraduate students seeking exemption from academic regulations or standards applicable to UTM courses. The UTM AAS Terms of Reference can be found here.

Appellants must present their case at a meeting convened to hear their case and may choose to have legal representation present. During the meeting, it falls upon the appellant to demonstrate to the AAS that, due to circumstances beyond their control, they merit an exemption from an academic regulation. Since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, AAS meetings have transitioned to virtual platforms.

The AAS is chaired by a teaching staff member appointed by the Vice-Principal Academic & Dean. Each hearing panel consists of up to 7 members, including the chair. The Secretary selects panel members from a pool of 18 teaching staff members (one designated by each department) and 4 undergraduate students. The selection of teaching staff members is made with due consideration to continuity, discipline relevance, and quorum needs. Undergraduate student members approved by the committee on the recommendation of the Chair. In addition, the Secretary, and representatives from the COS and/or the Office of the Registrar attend the hearings in a non-voting capacity.

From September 1, 2022, to August 31, 2023, the AAS convened 6 times and heard 13 distinct appeals.
