Constitutional Amendments: Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education

JURISDICTIONAL INFORMATION:

The Governing Council has the authority to establish faculty and college councils and to determine the composition, powers, and duties of those councils under the provisions of the University of Toronto Act, 1971, as amended by 1978, chapter 88, Section 2(14)(i).

Section 5.2.2 of the Academic Board Terms of Reference calls for amended divisional constitutions to be considered by the Board and confirmed by the Executive Committee.

GOVERNANCE PATH:

- 1. Academic Board [For Approval] (May 23, 2024)
2. Executive Committee [For Confirmation] (June 18, 2024)

PREVIOUS ACTION TAKEN:

Previous revisions to the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education Constitution were approved by the Academic Board on January 29, 2015, and confirmed by the Executive Committee of the Governing Council on February 9, 2015.

HIGHLIGHTS:

The proposed amendments to the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education Faculty Council Constitution were discussed at Professoriate meetings and the Faculty Council meeting on January 8, 2024. The revised constitution was shared with all Faculty Council members on February 12, 2024. On February 20, 2024, the Faculty Council Executive Committee recommended that the amendments be added to the agenda of Faculty Council. An update was provided to Faculty Council on March 1, 2024.

Additionally, as part of the consultation process for the amendments to the Constitution of the Council of Athletics and Recreation (CAR), CAR received the proposed changes to the Faculty Council Constitution and a presentation was made at the January 9, 2024 meeting. Changes to the CAR Constitution were approved on February 26, 2024. The CAR Constitution is included in the Faculty Council Constitution as an Appendix, and will be considered by the University Affairs Board for approval.

The changes to the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education Faculty Council Constitution include the following:

- Updating references to Policies and delegated authority, for example the Policy on Certificates (For Credit and Not-for Credit)
- Added teaching stream faculty appointment titles to the definition of “Teaching Staff”
- Added the position of Vice-Chair and increased the term of the appointment from 2 to 3 years
- Clarified the role of the Council of Athletics and Recreation
- Removed gendered language

At a regular Faculty Council meeting on April 5, 2024, the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education Faculty Council Constitution was recommended for Academic Board approval.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS:

There are no financial implications.

RECOMMENDATION:

Be It Resolved:

THAT, subject to confirmation by the Executive Committee

THAT the proposed amended Constitution of the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education, which was recommended for approval by Faculty Council on April 5, 2024, be approved, effective June 1, 2024.

CONSTITUTION OF THE COUNCIL OF THE
FACULTY OF KINESIOLOGY AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Article I. The Council of the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education, hereafter described as the “Faculty Council”, exercises its responsibilities under the provisions of the University of Toronto Act, 1971, as amended.

Article II. In this Constitution and the accompanying by-laws:

Section 2.01 “Faculty” means the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education and “Council” means the properly composed Council of the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education of the University of Toronto.

Section 2.02 “Teaching Staff” means a member of the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education who holds an academic appointment of 50% or more in the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education and who holds the rank of Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, Assistant Professor (conditional), Senior Lecturer, Lecturer, Senior Tutor, Tutor, Senior Athletics Instructor or Athletics Instructor.

Section 2.03 “Administrative Staff” means an appointed staff member of the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education who is not a member of the teaching staff and who holds an appointment of 50% or more.

Section 2.04 “Undergraduate student” means any student registered in a program of study leading to a degree, post-secondary diploma, or certificate in the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education who is not registered in the School of Graduate Studies.

For the purpose of Appendix A (The Council of Athletics and Recreation Constitution), “student” means any student defined according to the current regulations governing elections to the Governing Council.

Section 2.05 “Graduate student” means any student registered with the School of Graduate Studies in a program of study leading to a degree, post-secondary diploma or certificate in the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education.

Section 2.06 “Alumni” means anyone who has received a degree, post-secondary diploma, or certificate from the Faculty, or who has completed one year of full-time studies while registered in the Faculty, who is no longer registered as a student and who is not a member of the teaching or administrative staff of the University.

Article III. Subject to the provisions of the University of Toronto Act, 1971, and the approval, as required or appropriate, of the Governing Council of the University, Council shall have the following powers and duties:

Section 3.01 Council shall determine the number, size, composition and authority of Standing Committees of the Faculty Council.

Section 3.02 Council recommends for approval to the appropriate body of Governing Council amendments to divisional academic policies. Academic policy sets out the principles for, the general directions of, and/or priorities for the teaching and research activities of the Faculty.

Section 3.03 Council plays an advisory role, tendering advice to the divisional administration.

Article IV The specific powers and duties of Council are the following:

Section 4.01 Council shall determine the rules and regulations for governing its procedures and its decisions shall be made by resolutions passed at its meetings.

Section 4.02 Council shall pass by-laws regulating the exercise of its powers, the calling and conduct of its meetings, and the method of appointment or election of its members.

Section 4.03 Council shall have the power to establish, alter, or disband its committees as deemed necessary and to determine their composition, authority, quorum, and method of appointment of their members and chairs. Council has authority over recommendations brought forward by such committees, be that in its decision-making capacity or in its advisory role.

Section 4.04 Council shall determine the standards of admission of students to the Faculty and may delegate this responsibility to committees or officers of the Faculty. New policies and practices or amendments to existing ones which affect the whole Faculty are recommended to the appropriate body of Governing Council for approval.

Section 4.05 Council shall award scholarships, bursaries, prizes and other awards in the name of the Faculty and may delegate this responsibility to committees or officers of the Faculty.

Section 4.06 Council shall establish policies and procedures with respect to petitions and appeals by undergraduate students in connection with the application of academic rules and regulations by officers of the Faculty or by instructors in connection with academic standing in the Faculty. A Committee of Council shall make rulings on all such appeals and such rulings shall be final and binding, subject to an appeal to the Governing Council.

Procedures for academic appeals by graduate students are determined by the School of Graduate Studies in accordance with the Policy on Academic Appeals within Divisions.

Section 4.07 Determine the nature and content of all courses of study and programs offered by the Faculty, subject to the approval of the Governing Council, where required and shall monitor the quality and standards of the programs.

Council shall consider the content, quality, and requirements of the academic programs and courses of study that lead to degrees, diplomas, certificates, credits, and non-credit courses over which the Faculty has authority; it shall consider proposals for the closure of any such programs or courses of study; and it shall monitor the quality and standards of the programs and courses of study.

Council shall recommend for approval to the appropriate body of Governing Council proposals for new academic programs.

Council shall have delegated authority to approve proposals for major and minor modifications to existing academic programs. Definitions of major modifications of existing programs, minor modifications, and new academic programs are provided in the University of Toronto Quality Assurance Process and are subject to change. Guidance from the Office of the Vice-Provost, Academic Programs, should be sought prior to the development of any such proposal. All major modifications shall be reported annually for information to the appropriate body of Governing Council.

Council shall have delegated authority to approve proposals for the modification of existing diploma and certificate programs, pursuant to the University's Policy on Diploma and Certificate Programs. An annual report on such actions as required by the Policy, shall be provided for information to the appropriate body of Governing Council.

Section 4.08 Subject to the provisions of the above, Council may delegate its authority for the approval of minor modifications to academic programs to various committees. All such changes shall be reported for information to Council. The decision of whether a matter is major or minor may be made by the Committee Chair in consultation with the Chair of Council, and/or the Dean or his/her designate, and/or the Vice-President and Provost or his/her designate.

Section 4.09 Council may be one venue in which consideration and discussion of a review report of an academic program and/or unit may occur, consistent with the protocol outlined in the University of Toronto Quality Assurance Process.

Section 4.10 Council shall review and approve or recommend for approval to the Governing Council proposals concerning Extra-Departmental Units in the Faculty, pursuant to the Policy on Interdisciplinary Education and Research Planning.

Section 4.11 Council shall have delegated authority to approve transcript notations within existing degree programs, in accordance with University policy. An annual report on such actions, as required by policy, shall be provided for information to the appropriate body of Governing Council.

Section 4.12 Council shall consider recommendations from the Council of Athletics and Recreation concerning overall policies in athletics and recreation, subject to the approval of the Governing Council, as required.

Section 4.13 Council shall consider operating plans and budget proposals from the Council of Athletics and Recreation and comment on them to the appropriate body of Governing Council.

Article V Powers, duties, and responsibilities of the Dean

Section 5.01 Council recognizes that the Dean exercises powers under the authority of the "Policy on Appointment of Academic Administrators" which states that "the Dean of the Faculty is the chief executive officer of the Faculty and reports directly to the Vice-President and Provost."

Section 5.02 While the Dean may delegate authority to other academic administrators in the Faculty, the Dean retains responsibility for the overall direction of the Faculty and, in particular, for authority over the budget and other financial matters, personnel matters, including appointments and promotions, and extra-Faculty relationships. In this respect, Council recognizes that the Dean has ultimate authority for the allocation and management of the Faculty's resources.

Section 5.03 The Dean shall consult with members of the Faculty on matters of policy and practice but is ultimately responsible for all administrative decisions that are within his/her jurisdiction and authority.

Section 5.04 The Dean shall advise Council of the resource implications of proposed academic policy decisions.

Section 5.05 The Dean may consult with Council on administrative proposals that may have a significant impact on the academic programs of the Faculty.

Article VI The Membership of the Faculty Council comprises:

Section 6.01 Ex-officio members (with voting privileges, unless otherwise noted):

- The President of the University or designate
- The Vice-President and Provost or designate
- The Dean of the School of Graduate Studies or designate (non-voting)
- The Dean of the Faculty
- One professional librarian appointed by the University Librarian
- The Vice Deans of the Faculty
- The Associate Deans of the Faculty

Section 6.02 Other voting members of the Council may be elected or appointed, and include the following constituencies:

- All teaching staff of the Faculty as defined in section 2.02.
- Two professors emeritae/i of the Faculty.
- One member elected from and by the staff with curricular teaching duties in undergraduate practica courses.
- One member elected from and by those who serve as Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education practica instructors on a sessional, part-time basis.
- Seven undergraduate students elected from and by the students in the undergraduate program in the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education.

- One graduate student elected from and by the students in the graduate program in the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education.
- Four members elected from and by the administrative staff of the Faculty.
- The Co-Chairs of the Council of Athletics and Recreation.

Article VII. Term and Quorum of Council

Section 7.01 The term of office of the Faculty Council members and committees shall be from July 1 to June 30 of the following calendar year, with some student members beginning in the September session.

Section 7.02 The quorum for a meeting of Council shall be one-third of the voting members. This number will be determined each year.

Article VIII Officers

Section 8.01 Faculty Council members shall elect at its final meeting of the year, from among its members, the Chair. The term of office shall normally be for two years from July 1 to June 30. In the absence of the Chair, the Council shall elect an Acting Chair, upon the recommendation of the Dean.

The Chair shall be a non-voting member of Council.

Section 8.02 The Chair shall preside at all meetings of Council. In the absence of the Chair, any member of the Executive Committee may convene the meeting and an acting Chair shall be chosen by a majority of voting members present for the meeting.

Section 8.03 The Secretary shall be appointed by the Dean and shall be a non-voting ex-officio member of Council.

Article IX Meetings of Faculty Council

Section 9.01 The Faculty Council shall meet at least four times during each academic year. Notice of each meeting, including a proposed agenda, shall be given to members at least one week in advance of the meeting.

Section 9.02 A special meeting may be called by the Chair of the Faculty Council, the Dean of the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education, or upon the written request of five members of the Faculty Council. In the case of special meetings, a notice of three business days is required.

Section 9.03 Each voting member of Council has one vote on any question. Motions pass with a simple majority unless otherwise stated in the rules of procedure of the Council. In case of a tie vote, the Chair may cast a deciding vote or redirect the question for further consideration.

Section 9.04 The meetings of Faculty Council are open to all members of the University community except when matters of a confidential nature are under discussion. The Faculty Council will then move in camera.

Section 9.05 The members of Faculty Council are entitled to participate fully in meetings of the Faculty Council, to speak, to propose motions, to vote on all questions except those where the Chair rules there is a conflict of interest, and to serve on committees and task groups selected and/or appointed by the Faculty Council. In the case of substantive motions which are not on the Council agenda, a two-thirds vote is necessary to add them to the agenda. Members of Committees who are not members of Council may address Council on matters within the jurisdiction of the committee of which they are a member and participate in the debate but they may not vote.

Section 9.06 The decisions of Faculty Council are available to all members of the University community through the Minutes of Faculty Council, which are kept in the Faculty Office.

Article X By-Laws

Section 10.01 The procedures of Council will be set forth in the By-Laws of Council.

Section 10.02 The composition, powers, duties, and procedures of Standing and Special Committees shall be set forth in the By-Laws of Council.

Article XI Parliamentary Authority

Section 11.01 The rules contained in the most recent edition of Bourinot's Rules of Order shall govern the Council in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the By-Laws and any special rules of order the Council may adopt.

Article XII Amendment of the Constitution and By-Laws

Section 12.01 The Constitution of the Council may only be amended with the approval of the Council and the Governing Council of the University of Toronto. Voting shall take place at a regularly constituted meeting to which there has been three weeks notice of the proposed amendment. An affirmative vote to amend the Constitution is required by two-thirds of the members of Council present and voting. Following approval of the recommended amendment by Council, the amendment is forwarded to Governing Council for approval.

Section 12.02 The By-Laws of the Council may be amended at any regular meeting of the Council by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting, provided that there has been three weeks notice of the proposed amendment.

Article XIII. Council of Athletics and Recreation

Section 13.01 The athletic and recreational activities of the Faculty shall be governed by a Council, whose constitution and powers are outlined in the Constitution of the Council of Athletics and Recreation, as in Appendix A hereto, which forms part of the Constitution of the Faculty Council.

Section 13.02 Amendments to the Constitution of the Council of Athletics and Recreation will be considered for approval by the Faculty Council and the Governing Council body with assigned responsibility for Athletics and Recreation.

Amended and approved by Faculty Council on May 21, 2009 and approved by the Executive Committee of the Governing Council on June 15, 2009.

Amended and approved by Faculty Council on February 27, 2012, and approved by the Executive Committee of the Governing Council on March 29, 2012.

Amended and approved by the Faculty Council on January 16, 2013, and approved by the Executive Committee of the Governing Council on March 28, 2013.

Amended and approved by the Faculty Council on November 3, 2014, and approved by the Executive Committee of the Governing Council on February 9, 2015.

Constitution for the Faculty of Kinesiology and Physical Education

The composition, powers, duties, and procedures of its committees shall be set forth in the By-Laws of Council.

IV-4 Admissions

Council shall determine the standards of admission of students to the Faculty. New admissions policies and practices or amendments to existing ones which affect the whole Faculty are recommended to the appropriate body of Governing Council for approval.

IV-5 Awards

Council shall award scholarships, bursaries, prizes, and other awards in the gift of the Faculty and may delegate this responsibility to committees or officers of the Faculty.

IV-6 Petitions and appeals

Council shall establish policies and procedures with respect to petitions and appeals by undergraduate students in connection with the application of academic rules and regulations by officers of the Faculty or by instructors in connection with academic standing in the Faculty. A Committee of Council shall make rulings on all such appeals and such rulings shall be final and binding, subject to an appeal to the Governing Council.

Procedures for academic appeals by graduate students are determined by the School of Graduate Studies in accordance with the Policy on Academic Appeals within Divisions.

IV-7 Academic programs

Council shall consider the content, quality, and requirements of the academic programs and courses of study that lead to degrees, diplomas, certificates, credit and non-credit courses over which the Faculty has authority; it shall consider proposals for the closure of any such programs or courses of study; and it shall monitor the quality and standards of the programs and courses of study.

Council shall recommend for approval to the appropriate body of Governing Council proposals for the establishment and closure of academic programs.

Council shall have delegated authority to approve proposals for the establishment and closure of Category 1 and Category 2 for credit certificates in accordance with the Policy on Certificates \(For Credit and Not-for-Credit\). These approvals shall be reported annually for information to the appropriate body of Governing Council.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Definitions of Category 1 and 2 certificates are provided in the Policy on Certificates (For Credit and Not-for-Credit). The Policy states that new Category 3 certificates “must undergo the appropriate divisional approval” and must be submitted to the Provost’s Office for inclusion in an annual report to the Committee on Academic Policy & Programs.

Council shall approve proposals for Category 3 Not-for-Credit certificates. These approvals shall be reported to the Provost's Office for inclusion in an annual report to the Committee on Academic Policy & Programs.

Council shall have delegated authority to approve proposals for major and minor modifications to existing academic programs, diplomas, and certificates.<sup>2</sup> All major modifications shall be reported annually for information to the appropriate body of Governing Council.

IV-8 Delegation of authority

Subject to the provisions of the above, Council may delegate its authority for the approval of minor modifications to academic programs to various committees. All such changes shall be reported for information to Council. The decision of whether a matter is major or minor may be made by the Committee Chair in consultation with the Chair of Council, and/or the Dean or Dean's designate, and/or the Vice-President and Provost or the Vice-President & Provost's designate.

IV-9 Interdisciplinary units

Council shall review and approve or recommend for approval to the Governing Council proposals concerning Extra-Departmental Units in the Faculty, pursuant to the Policy on Interdisciplinary Education and Research Planning and the Guidelines for Extra-Departmental Units.
