

The Position of Chancellor of the University of Toronto

Statutory Requirements of the University of Toronto Act, 1971

The Chancellor will be elected by the alumni in a manner to be determined by the Governing Council. The Chancellor shall serve for a term of three years, commencing on the 1st day of July of the year in which he/she is elected, and will hold office until his/her successor is elected. The Chancellor is eligible for re-election for one additional term of three years.

The Chancellor must be a Canadian Citizen.

Responsibilities

Under the Act, the Chancellor serves as chairman of Convocation, and confers all degrees of the University. The Chancellor is also the titular head of the University, and, with the President and the Chair and Vice-Chair of the Governing Council, represents the University to the external community. In this role, the Chancellor is an advocate for the vision of the University as it is articulated by the President and endorsed by the Governing Council. He/she plays an essential ambassadorial role in advancing the University's interests within the local, provincial, national and international arenas.

Attributes

The Chancellor will be a distinguished person with a record of demonstrated excellence in his/her chosen field and in service to the community. Ideally, the Chancellor will be an individual whose reputation and experience will assist the Chair of the Governing Council and the President in "opening doors" both nationally and internationally. Over the last thirty-five years, the Chancellors have been:

The Hon. David R. Peterson	2006-2009
The Hon. Vivienne Poy	2003-2006
The Hon. Henry N. R. Jackman	1997-2003
Mrs. Rose Wolfe	1991-1997
The Hon. John B. Aird	1986-1991
Dr. George Ignatieff	1980-1986
Dr. Arthur B. B. Moore	1977-1980
Dr. Eva W. M. Macdonald	1974-1977
The Hon. Pauline M. McGibbon	1971-1974

Desired attributes are summarized below:

a) Relationship to the University

Ideally, the Chancellor will have an established relationship with the University. Preferably a graduate of the University, the Chancellor will demonstrate an unquestioned commitment to the University. He/she will exemplify and symbolize the University by his/her conduct and the standards he/she sets. The Chancellor will understand and be sensitive to the needs and concerns of all estates of the University, and will share the President's commitment to equity, excellence and diversity.

b) Relationship to the University's Communities

The Chancellor will have experience and contacts which add to those of the Chair and Vice-Chair of the Governing Council, the President and the Vice-Presidents. He/she will be an individual who has a professional and personal profile which will facilitate the administration's efforts to make the case for public research universities in government and other arenas. The Chancellor will add to the ability of the University's senior officers to represent and respond to the diverse interests found among the University's members, alumni and friends.

c) Ceremonial Activities

The Chancellor will be comfortable with and adept at ceremony and generally familiar with protocol in university and government settings. The Chancellor presides at all convocation ceremonies of the University. This year, there were eighteen Convocations held in June, and another five in November. In addition, the Chancellor is called upon to attend, to host, or to speak at a number of social events throughout the year. At the Spring reunion, the Chancellor presents the Chancellor's Medal to all those who are celebrating their 55th, 60th, 65th, 70th or 75th anniversary of Convocation. This past spring, a total of 230 of these medals were awarded. The Chancellor also presents the Chancellor's Award, one of the University's awards of excellence, to an administrative staff member who has made an outstanding contribution to the University. The Chancellor is expected to attend the University of Toronto Alumni Association general meeting as well as President's Circle events.

d) Fundraising Activities

The Chancellor will be active, visible, and credible in fundraising campaigns and have connections and access to public and/or private funders. The Chancellor must have the respect of many of the corporate/foundation/special interest groups with which the University must cultivate and maintain relations.

e) Community Outreach

The Chancellor will be an articulate and effective communicator, comfortable in a wide variety of public and private settings and across a diverse range of audiences.
