- Online feedback form open Sept. – Oct.

Policy Revisions

I. Changes to reflect reviewers' recommendations about the Policy, such as:

- Public annual report providing statistical information on sexual violence cases
- Increased clarity on non-adjudicative processes
- Stronger language on zero tolerance for reprisals and retaliation

II. Minor changes to enhance clarity of the Policy, such as:

- Alphabetization of definitions

Strengthening Post-Secondary Institutions and Students Act

Tabled October 27, 2022; further amended November 30

- Creates additional tools to address sexual violence in post-secondary institutions, specifically between employees and students
- The Act's policy requirement reflects what is already in our Policy
- Working to ensure that our Policy and associated practices will be in compliance by the time the legislation comes into place on July, 2023 (at the earliest)

Strengthening Post-Secondary Institutions and Students Act

Policy (already in our Policy)

- Requires universities to have a sexual misconduct policy that includes:
 - a) “rules with respect to sexual behaviour that involves employees and students”
 - b) examples of disciplinary measures that may be imposed on employees for violating the policy

Procedures

- Discipline/termination deemed “just cause”
- Prevents agreements that prohibit disclosure that an allegation/complaint has been made that an employee committed sexual misconduct toward a student
 - Exception where agreement is requested by a student

• Prevents re-hiring of employees

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Impact of Policy Revisions

Policy improvement is an iterative process

In this Review:

- Clarity on University supports and processes
- More fulsome and timely communications with participants in sexual violence report processes
- Better articulation of University's responsibilities and obligations
- Meaningful change
